ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

Joseph Morrison of Burlington has been taken to the insane asylum at Waterbury, having been adjudged insane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Thynge of Passumpsic have presented the Baptist church in that village with an individual communion service.

Henry O'Malley, superintendent of the government hatchery at Baker Lake, Wash., has been spending the past week at his old home in St. Johnsbury. He came East with 1,400,000 silver salmon eggs, which he deposited at the government hatchery near Bucksport, Me.

Adj.-Gen. W. H. Gilmore of Fairlee, says the Vermont party including Gov. C. J. Bell and staff, that will attend the inauguration of President Roosevelt will number thirty or more. It is not to be a private party, and any one desiring to do so is invited to join. General Gilmore will keep the list open until Saturday, February 18.

Assistant Judges Allen and Lavigne of Chittenden county met Monday at the county clerk's office and made an order for a special grand jury. This was done at the request of State's Attorney Sherman, who wishes to have the grand jury dispose of the case against Dennis and Louis Trombley, who are charged with the murder of Louis Lamora.

Miss Maude Niles of Hoosick Falls, who is employed at the skirt factory in Shushan had a narrow escape from instant death Thursday afternoon. In stooping down to pick up something, her hair was caught in the belt of the transmitter and before the power could be turned off, her front hair was torn from her scalp. She escaped serious injury, but is suffering from shock.

According to H. W. Clement's self-registering thermometer on Merchant's Row in Rutland there have so far this winter been 23 days when the thermometer went below zero, six days in December, 12 in January, and five in February. The lowest temperature so far recorded, was 13 below zero, January 5. The warmest day since winter set in, as shown by a thermometer protected from the sun's rays, was January 7, when the mercury crawled up to 47. The coldest temperature reported for November was six degrees above, the 28th.

O. M. Smith of Morrisville reports a harvest of 969 eggs for the month of January from 62 hens, against 640 eggs for the month preceding from 54 hens, which is quite a gain per head. Mr. Smith attributes the handsome returns from his poultry to good care and gives the following recipe as a guaranteed cure for a disease, which is quite common to poultry, called "roupy."—1½ teaspoonful of sweet oil to 1½ teaspoonful of kerosene. After pouring the dose down the throat of the affected "biddy," drop what is left in the spoon into the nostrils. The cure is speedy.

The 95th birthday anniversary of William H. Bronson of St. Albans was happily celebrated at his home on the Bronson road Monday, 25 of his descendants sitting down to an elaborate dinner, prepared for the occasion. Mr. Bronson, whose health is excellent and mind perfectly clear and bright, was taken by surprise when his relatives warned in upon him, but he enjoyed the occasion thoroughly and regaled his hearers with stories of happenings of nearly a century ago. The battle of Plattsburg is among Mr. Bronson's earliest remembrances, the family living on North Island at the time, and when the British soldiers were passing down the lake, Mr. Bronson's mother took him to the attic of their home where they saw the red coats both going and returning and listened to the booming of guns while the battle was on. Mr. Bronson is hale and hearty and bids fair to round out the century mark.

Pepper.

White pepper is apt to be purer than the black, which is largely an admixture of pepper shells, pepper dust and other adulterations.

Abbottbury Swans.

There are more than 1,000 swans at Abbottbury, in England, living a perfectly natural life and none of them plumed. The visitor sees the largest birds in England in full flight, for the Abbottbury birds use their wings for all journeys to and from the sea or down the long lagoon called the Fleet, that divides the shore from the beach.

One on the "Jedge."

A corpulent negro woman came into the office of Judge George I. Griffith of the South City Court, in Kansas City, Kan., the other morning, and inquired for the "Jedge."

"What can I do for you?" asked the Judge.

"Is yoh runnin' foh Jedge agin?" she asked.

"Yes, I'm trying to get the nomination," the Judge replied.

"What's the 'sideration foh votes dis yeah?"

"What!" almost yelled the Judge, beginning to understand the drift of the conversation.

"Ah means," explained the negro, "is votes with one dollah or two dollahs dis 'lection?"

"Are you aware that it is a serious offense for a person to sell his vote?" sternly demanded the Judge.

"Ah don't 'zactly undahstah' yoh lawgidge, Judge, but ef yoh means yoh ain't buyin' 'em, dat's all right. Ah believe yuh'ae no politishun nobow."

And with this contemptuous paring shot, she left the office.—Kansas City Star.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public.

This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada. Sold at the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store, Barre, Vt.

Everybody likes a winner. The winner must possess the qualities that excel. The winner in the Poultry Food class is spoken of in a recent letter from Huntington & Eastman, Washington, Vt., as follows: "There are several so-called Poultry Foods on the market here, but 'Page's Perfect Poultry Food' beats them all. We find a ready and steadily increasing sale for 'Page's'."

CURRENT COMMENT.

What the Press of the State and Country Is Talking About.

That Rev. G. W. Morrow made some mistakes as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, none will deny, but his heart was in his work, and his zeal never wavered. The league has lost a good man and it will find it hard to fill his place.—Middlebury Register.

Senator Dillingham.

The average Vermonter can find fault enough, himself, among his neighbors at home, with conditions and prospects of the state; but he doesn't air such criticisms abroad and he doesn't want to hear outsiders make them. Senator Dillingham is no exception, apparently, to the general rule.—Brattleboro Reformer.

Fatal Public Indifference.

St. Albans, at a special city meeting, voted against the proposition to change the city charter so as to provide for the election of three school commissioners at large, rather than one school commissioner from each ward as at present. The election was participated in by only a fraction of the voters but the proposition was overwhelmingly defeated. Evidently the interest in the proposed change was not great.—Rutland News.

Anti-Saloon League Affairs.

Several Vermont newspapers have been sailing into the new superintendent of the Vermont Anti-Saloon League, C. J. Ferguson, of Burlington, on account of his frank announcement that he proposed to employ detectives, if he thought best, to run down violators of the liquor laws. We think the criticisms of Mr. Ferguson's course premature. There are certainly no objections to the employment of detectives for such violations of law, if the detectives do not descend to the tactics of the spotter, in other words, if they do not work to persuade men to violate the law for purposes of earning their money.—Rutland News.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

The late Belle Cole, the oratorio singer, put a modest estimate on her fine voice. "There are negroes in the cotton fields who can sing as well," she said.

The school for millinery for gentlemen, conducted by Lady Rachel Rynge, daughter of the Earl of Stratford, is said to be a successful enterprise.

Mrs. H. Otis Brown of Weymouth, Mass., owns the oldest doll in the country. It came from France 193 years ago and is in an excellent state of preservation.

Miss Willa A. Leonard has been a money counter in the United States treasury department since 1882. She is an expert and the fastest counter in the government employ.

Mrs. Lovina Cox of Harrington, Me., the oldest person in the state, being 106 on Jan. 12, 1905, walked a distance of one mile last week to spend the day with grandchildren.

Miss Katherine L. Craig, the superintendent of public instruction in Colorado, is one of the best known women educators in the United States. She is the author of several text books.

The Countess of Carlisle is one of the best of women platform speakers and sometimes takes her place in the pulpit. She has a private chapel at Naworth castle and occasionally conducts the whole service, sermon and all.

The German emperor has conferred Imperial court hunting costumes upon three English noblewomen—the Dowager Countess of Dudley, the Marchioness of Lansdowne and the Marchioness of Ormonde—whom his majesty saw hunting on the occasion of his last visit to Sandringham.

As to SORENS.

Johnny—Pa, what's a popper song? Pa—A popular song, Johnny, is a song that's so popular that it's unpopular.—St. Louis Republic.
